ELECTRONIC TICKET RECEIPT

This serves as your E-ticket Receipt and is NOT a BOARDING PASS.

Thank you for choosing Airlink.

This is your E-ticket receipt containing all the details for your upcoming flight.

You are required to print and carry this E-ticket receipt as you will need to present it at check-in and at time of boarding together with a valid RSA identity document or valid Government issued Passport.

All passengers are required to check-in as soon as online check-in (where applicable) is open for passenger acceptance, or alternatively arrive at the airport check-in desk two (2) hours before the flight departure time as stipulated on the Ticket. In the event of a flight delay, the flight will still close on time. Failure to check-in on time will result in your seat being given to a standby passenger.

The airfare included in the electronic ticket may be a special fare and rebooking and cancellation restrictions may apply. If the fare conditions allow for a rebooking or refund, please be advised that charges may apply. Airfares have conditions attached that limit or excludes the passengers right to change or cancel the reservation. The passenger is responsible to familiarise themselves with the terms and conditions that apply to the airfare and Airlink accepts no responsibility for the passenger's failure to do so.

Having purchased an electronic ticket from Airlink means that you understood and agreed to our terms and conditions of carriage including restrictions on dangerous goods forbidden for air transportation and the fare purchase conditions. For enquiries regarding the fare conditions applying to your chosen airfare, please contact your local Airlink office.

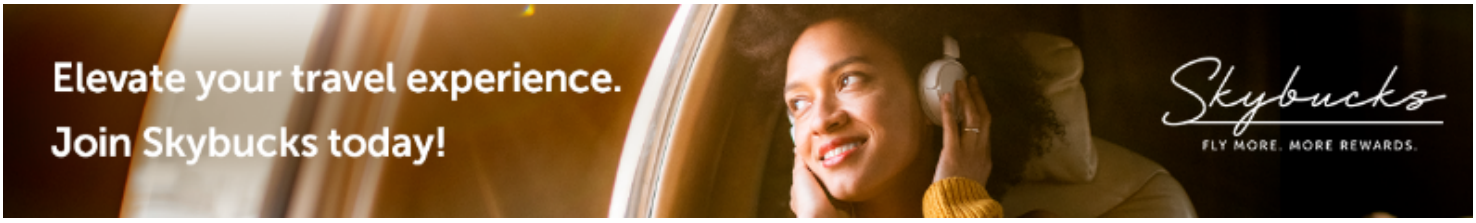
The carriage of certain hazardous materials, like aerosols, fireworks, and flammable liquids, aboard the aircraft is forbidden. If you do not understand these restrictions, further information may be obtained from your airline.

LEGAL AND PASSENGER NOTICES

ELECTRONIC TICKET


Carriage and other services provided by the carrier are subject to conditions of carriage, which are hereby incorporated by reference. These conditions may be obtained from the issuing carrier. The itinerary/receipt constitutes the passenger ticket for the purposes of article 3 of the Warsaw convention, except where the carrier delivers to the passenger another document complying with the requirements of article 3. Passengers on a journey involving an ultimate destination or a stop in a country other than the country of departure are advised that international treaties known as the montreal convention, or its predecessor, the warsaw convention, including its amendments (the warsaw convention system), may apply to the entire journey, including any portion thereof within a country. For such passengers, the applicable treaty, including special contracts of carriage embodied in any applicable tariffs, governs and may limit the liability of the carrier. These conventions govern and may limit the liability of air carriers for death or bodily injury or loss of or damage to baggage, and for delay.
