

A close-up photograph of a light-colored, textured surface, possibly a piece of fabric or paper. Several small, dark, circular spots are visible, arranged in a somewhat irregular pattern. The texture appears slightly grainy or fibrous.

A close-up photograph of the top of a white ceramic jar. The top surface is perforated with a grid of small, circular holes, likely for ventilation or drainage. The holes are arranged in a regular pattern, with some visible in the foreground and others receding into the background. The ceramic has a slightly textured, off-white appearance.
